Our objective is to meet our clients' staffing needs through structured, customized recruitment projects for rapid, tangible results, following an analysis of their specific requirements, the context, and the criteria of the position to fill.

We provide a systematic approach to building a dynamic and effective human resources organization for our clients in Europe. We provide a full range of services, including recruitment, outplacement, consulting and training.

Our structured approach ensures that each step of the search is carefully analyzed and implemented:

- Briefing and reproduction of the profile of the company, position and candidate sought.
- Drawing up of a customized evaluation table.
- Choice of the recruitment strategy.
- Targeting of and search for candidates in the ITGS database (over 30,000 contacts).
- Direct approach of candidates.
- Drafting, validation and publication of targeted advertisements.

Once the most qualified candidates are identified, we support our clients' selection process through:

- Candidate short lists
- Individual and group interviews
- Evaluations, tests, and following up on references
- Presentation of candidates
- Advice on selected candidates
